

GENERAL STAGE PLOT:

NOTE: The minimum area of dance can be no less than 16'W x 12'D as indicated by:
Not including space for the piano.

AREAS 1-3, M, P

1. The main playing area.
 2. The piano player an important part of this production. The piano should be as close to the Area 1 as possible. The piano player should be back lit at all times while on stage, and should have a special for solos and speaking.
 3. This area is used for ONSTAGE costume changes and speaking. The area should include an adjustable clothes rack, chair, and a microphone on boom stand. This area is lit the same as Area 2.
- M: Vocal mic should have a special.
P. placement of pedestal for "Pedestal Man". This area is lit the same as Area 2.

Josh Hilberman's "Heeling Powers: Rhythms of the Left Brain"

